Fiscal Analysis

ASSUMPTIONS:

Secretary of State

1. There would be somewhere between 150-300 taking the test every two years.
2. The office of the Secretary of State is proprietary and therefore, will only be charging expenses.
3. The Secretary of State shall set a fee commensurate with the cost to the office.
4. Constitutional scholars and committee members will be reimbursed for their expenses.
5. The test can be administered by either the staff for the Secretary of State or the local election administrator.
6. A card will be designed verifying that a person has successfully completed the test, including the date and signature by the Secretary of State
